

THE ROUTE CHART

A “Chart” is created and shared with one and all concerned about the suggested direction of progression. Some of the elements are indicated as follows:

An outline is sketched and thereafter these aspects are taken up to ensure there is no deviation from the path charted. It is critical to note, every plan that is created comes with an In-built Course-Correction Model.